Captains' Club put up a good fight but fall to Hurricane Coaches

October 11, 2012

MIAMI, FL. - In the first game of Jim Larranaga's Senior Elite Classic the Hurricane Coaches beat the Captains' Club in both halves, 41-13 in the first half and 44-28 in the second half. The Captains' Club showed a lot of effort and hustle in the second half, but just could not come back. Jim Larranaga coached the Captains' team and Reggie Johnson was the coach of the Hurricanes.

Dwayne Collins was the highest scorer for both teams in the first half with 15 points along with 5 rebounds. Guillermo Diaz and Kevin Noon were right behind him, both with 9 points in the first half. Collins said he "got a few shots in" before the game to prepare. Collins ended up with 19 points.

Zeus Hernandez was the highest scorer in the first half for the Captains' Club with 5 points, and MVP from last year, Tom Hayes, scored 4 points. Hayes said his mental focus throughout the game was "to hurt them before they hurt me."

In the second half, the Captains' Club came out ready and made the first shot of the half and that was their first lead of the game. Dan Feldstein was the highest scorer on the Captains' team in the second half with 6 points, and Hayes and Michael Hawk both had 5 points in the half.

"I knew they were going to be tall and fast and that's exactly what happened," said Hayes after the game. Hayes ended up with 18 points overall.

The Captains' team went on 6-2 run in the second half, cutting the lead to 7, forcing Johnson to call a timeout with 11:40 left. Jon Larranaga made a three-pointer with 6:30 left in the second half, which sealed the game, putting the Hurricanes up 30-17. He ended up with 5 points overall. Diaz scored 16 points in the second half and ended up with 25 points.

In preparation for the games tomorrow, Hayes said he is going to "recuperate, ice the knees and get ready for another battle."
