

JIM LARRANAGA

senior elite classic

Hurricane Herald

Day 1 of the Jim Larranaga Senior Elite Classic Kicks off at the BUC

October 12, 2012

MIAMI, Fl. - On the first day of the Jim Larranaga Senior Elite Classic, the day started with the Captains' Club attending a Citi Card sponsored breakfast followed by film breakdown and game prep with Coach Larranaga.

Registration began at the BankUnited Center with all of the campers checking in and receiving their jerseys and UM apparel. Lunch was also provided and they had a chance to meet with trainers and begin stretching with Jim Krumpos, the strength and conditioning coach.

Evaluation games were held at the Fieldhouse where coaches were able to assess the campers and see their skill level. While the coaches left to decide on the teams, the campers participated in a three point contest where Michael Ferdman won after beating another camper in a 30 second shootout. Soon after, the teams were announced at the Draft and team practice began.

In the first set of games, Team Duke beat Team Miami 64-58, Team Maryland beat Team Virginia 35-30, and Team Boston College beat Team North Carolina 73-56. At the end of the day, the University of Miami basketball team began practice and held a scrimmage. Campers then headed back to their hotel and had dinner on their own. Tomorrow the campers will take team photos with Coach Larranaga and begin another round of games.

Story by: Maleana Davis